

CENTER GROWING . . . Construction is under way to complete the $40 million Del Amo Center here. In addition to the Broadway Department Store and Sears-Roebuck & Co., presently open for business, Silverwoods, Ontra Cafeteria, Lerner Stores, Leeds Shoes, F. W. Woolworth, and Wetherby Kayser will open stores on the 152,000 square foot mall. At the top of the picture is the Thrifty Drug Co. store and the new Food Giant market. Thrifty has opened, the market will open later this spring.

Administrator Named by State Board

Appointment of James W. Tieman as assistant district tax administrator of the Long Beach sub-district office of the State Board of Equalization was announced today by Richard Nevins, vice-chairman and Fourth District Member of the Board.

In announcing the appointment, Nevins said:

"This newly created position is the result of an expressed policy of the Board to provide the citizens of California with maximum service at minimum cost. The Board after intensive study, adopted a statewide reorganization plan. The Assistant District Tax Administrator appointments today in Los Angeles and Orange counties are a part of that integrated plan for more effective organizational procedures and efficient operation."

INTEGRATION places the entire responsibility of the Long Beach sub-district in the hands of Tieman who has been with the Board of Equalization for 21 years. He is a graduate of the University of Southern California and is a Certified Public Accountant. Tieman has been a resident of Los Angeles County for 39 years.

Long Beach is one of seven sub-districts under the direct supervision of Los Angeles County District Tax Administrator William R. Thomson.

THE SERVICE area for the Long Beach office includes the southern portion of the county, including Dominguez, Gardena, Harbor City, Lomita, Palos Verdes Estates, Rolling Hills, San Pedro, Torrance, and Wilmington.

Taxpayers can discuss their tax matters with Tieman at the Long Beach sub-district office Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. The Board administers the sales and use tax, transportation tax, motor vehicle fuel tax, alcoholic beverage tax and cigarette tax. The Long Beach sub-district office is located at 4335 Atlantic Ave. and the telephone is GARfield 7-9931.

INCLUDED in the announcement of the sub-district tax administrators were the appointments of Philip E. Rose, district principal auditor, and A. W. Gallagher, district principal compliance officer. Their appointments represent the completion of the Los Angeles County portion of the statewide reorganization plan adopted by the Board.

PLAN OPENING . . . Going over final plans for completion of the new Palley's store on Hawthorne Ave. just south of Sepulveda for the March 18-20 week end opening are (from left) Sam Palley and Bill Palley, owners; Len St. John, Bulman Store Fixture Co.; and Curt Rutzke, store manager.

PALLEY'S SCHEDULE LARGEST LUAU, MANY PRIZES FOR GRAND OPENING

Palley's, who has brought unparalleled values to the Los Angeles area for many years, will open its newest and most modern store on the week end of March 20 at Sepulveda and Hawthorne Bldvs., it was announced here this week by William Palley, president.

The 40,000 square foot, ultra modern store, customer engineered by the Bulman Corp., will offer every possible shopping convenience and values, store officials report.

THE WORLDWIDE buying power of the Palley organization assures the customer of a considerable selection of money saving commodities. Departments such as furniture, appliances, televisions, automobile accessories, sports wear, skin diving, pool, and patio equipment will bring to the Torrance-Palos Verdes area the greatest array of prestige and value merchandise ever assembled under one roof.

The new Torrance-Palos Verdes supermarket of values is the realization of a lifetime of work, Palley reports.

"TO LAUNCH the grand opening on the week end of March 20, we have planned a fantastic Polynesian festival," Palley said.

"This Polynesian festival is our 'aloha' to the people of the Torrance-Palos Verdes area. The week-end will bring our grand opening on Friday, March 18, and will present unprecedented opening values in every department," he said.

INCLUDED ON the week end program will be live entertainment and music; prizes, including a 10-day vacation at the Hawaiian Village hotel; a two-day vacation at the hotel of your choice in Palm Springs, underwater diving equipment, free bowling, coffee, doughnuts, dinners at the Polynesian, record albums, furniture, and hundreds of other gifts.

Demonstrations of new items to beautify and enhance California living will be in progress during the opening.

ON SUNDAY the Palley officials plan to present "the largest South Sea luau the world has ever seen," Palley said. "Accept our invitation to share with us the thrill of a genuine luau complete with Terri-aki steaks, Hawaiian punch, native dancing girls, those famous recording stars, 'The Polynesians,' playing for your entertainment, two shows featuring the authentic South Sea Island 'Dance of the Sword,' and much more."

Palley's will be located just south of Sepulveda Blvd. on Hawthorne Ave.

CLARINETISTS PRACTICE . . . Tuning up for the South Area Musical Festival, featuring 150 musicians from eight elementary schools, are Teacher Richard Ducar and Clarinetists Jeff Lewin and Don Rogers, Seaside School students. The concert will be at 8 p.m. in the South High Gym.

150 Elementary School Musicians To Give Annual Musical Festival

One hundred and fifty musicians from elementary schools in south Torrance will present the annual Music Festival Friday night at 8 p.m. in the South High School Gym.

Musicians from Riviera, Newton, Parkway, Meadow Park, Seaside, Hillside, Walteria, and Calle Mayor schools will join to form the elementary school orchestra and band. The South

High School Band, directed by Glenn Hawley, also will play. A string trio — Carol Martina, Doug Urban, and Vance Stephan — will perform, as will a brass sextet — Richard Power, David Michel, Don Brevet, Steve Livingston, Gail Childs, and Keith Rogers.

Directors for the various numbers will be elementary music teachers David Sherman, Robert Simon, Richard Radford, and Richard Ducar. The music teachers visit each elementary school several times a week to direct the school bands and to give instruction on the various instruments.

Greek Orthodox Church Moves to New Quarters

St. Catherine's Greek Orthodox Church is moving to larger quarters effective today. The new address will be at 141 S. Pacific Ave. in Redondo Beach, above McMahon's furniture store.

Dr. Ernest Donlou, president of the Community, pointed out the new quarters will be used for all Orthodox services. In addition to seating for 200, there is ample Sunday School, office, and storage facilities, he said.

The Divine Liturgy and Sunday School classes start at 10:30 a.m. each Sunday, he said.

The Community, which has been established just over two years, has purchased a church site in Redondo Beach and plans to build a new church, Sunday School, and recreation hall

OPENING FRIDAY . . . Several parties from Torrance and Palos Verdes are planned for the formal opening Friday night of "Susan and God" at the Long Beach Community Playhouse, 5021 E. Anaheim St. Shown here are Marvin Cloyd and Florence Cole, long time favorites of the Long Beach theater-goers, who portray lead roles in the Rachel Crothers classic.
